A very small criminal, whose age was said to be twelve years, was brought before Mr Wise to day charged with stealing a gold brooch, a silver hairpin and a silver 7.50 thimble, the property of Mrs Tiffenberg, by whom he was employed as a servent. Case. Per Bot. From the evidence it appeared that the youngster had tried to get another servant charged with the theft, but was ultimately scared into giving up the stolen articles He admitted his gnilt to the Magistrate, who sentenced him to seven days' imprisonment and ten strokes of the rattan.

In Saturday's Gazette a table is public 8 0.75 showing the return of the Collector of Stamp Revenue for the first six months of the current year compared with that for 8 0.75 the corresponding period of last year. The revenue this year amounted to $99,427.19 8 0.75 as against $104,327.73 in the first half of 1890, a net decrease of $4,900.54. The principal items of decrease are conveyances 10 1.00 and assignmenta, $2.902.70; letters of hypothecation, $2,300.20; adhesive stamps (exclusive of 3 cent stamps), $2,286.56; and bank note duty, $908.44. THE sale of the Hotel Marina, with the furniture and fittings appertaining to that ill starred venture, was commenced to-day, Mr Denson, of Messrs Lane, Crawford and 4.50 0.40 Co., being the nuctioneer. The principal item in the sale catalogue was, of course, th 5.25 0.60 hull, which was the first lot put up. The was, we believe, a reserve of $6,000 on. 12 1.00 which figure was mentioned by the aus Good Leeward Island $1.50 per Gallon, tioneer as soon as the first bid of $2,00% by Mr Mitchell (Mesers Butterfield and Swice's Heering's Cherry Cordial representative), was offered. The bidding Dr. Siegert's Angostura then proceeded at $500 each offer until the sum of $8,000 was reached, at which figure the hull was knocked down to Mr Mitchell for Mesers Butterfield and Swire. The lot includes the hull, with superstructure, awning stanchions and frames, two 5-ton and two 303-gallon water tanks, a patent windless, a 90-fathom chain cable, a 36cwt. anchor. &c. The furniture and fittings were afterwards put up in small lots. The sale will continue for two days.

Nows has just come in that several of these have been destroyed by rioters. At Fuchou Fu the meb wrecked the outhouse and entered the church and priest's residence sacking everything, but did not apparently burn or wreck the main buildings. The priest in the meantime took refuge in the yamens, but the mob attacked these places, overcame the officials and beat the Chibsien : how much damage was done has not yet transpired. I learn the orphanage is safe. It is noteworthy that the talk now turns against the
